

'DORCHESTER' A HALLIDAY HOME SIX ROOMS AND BATHROOM Size 30' 3" x 32' 3"

A picturesque home, with its attractive leaded windows, gay flower boxes and effective hooded entrance, is an interesting variation of the usual English-type design. Individuality of design is evident in the interior of this lovely home. Notice, for instance, the twenty-foot-long living room with windows on three sides and cheery fireplace; what a delight entertaining would be in a room like this. Another feature is the side porch which offers a protection to the main entrance in winter and a wonderful place to sit out in the summer. Upstairs, the bathroom and three good-sized bedrooms are conveniently arranged around a central hall. The master bedroom is worthy of particular mention, both because of its unusual shape and also because of the very plentiful closet space provided. Our Dorchester home is shown here with brick walls, but would look equally effective with stucco walls if preferred.

The requirements of a city family have been met most successfully in this attractive home with its distinctive, arched front entrance. This home is only a little over twenty-one feet wide, yet see how skillfully this narrow space has been utilized. Downstairs there is a good-sized living and dining room, a well-planned kitchen and a convenient front hall. Upstairs there is a bathroom and three fine bedrooms, each with good closet space. This home, as shown with brick walls and stucco gables, leaves little to desire, but may be had with stucco walls if preferred.

"DUFFERIN" A HALLIDAY HOME

Size 30' 0" x 22' 0"

SIX ROOMS AND BATHROOM
WITH SUNROOM ADDITION

The Dutch Colonial style has long been a favourite among those who like a comfortable, roomy home. We present here a house of this design modernized to meet the demands of the most up-to-date family yet retaining the spacious comfort associated with this type of home. The sunroom addition at the side is an added attraction. Our Dufferin home is shown here in the traditional Dutch Colonial construction but just as pleasing an effect can be achieved if the walls are finished in stucco instead of frame.

SIX ROOMS AND BATHROOM WITH WASHROOM UPSTAIRS Size 29' 0" x 29' 0"

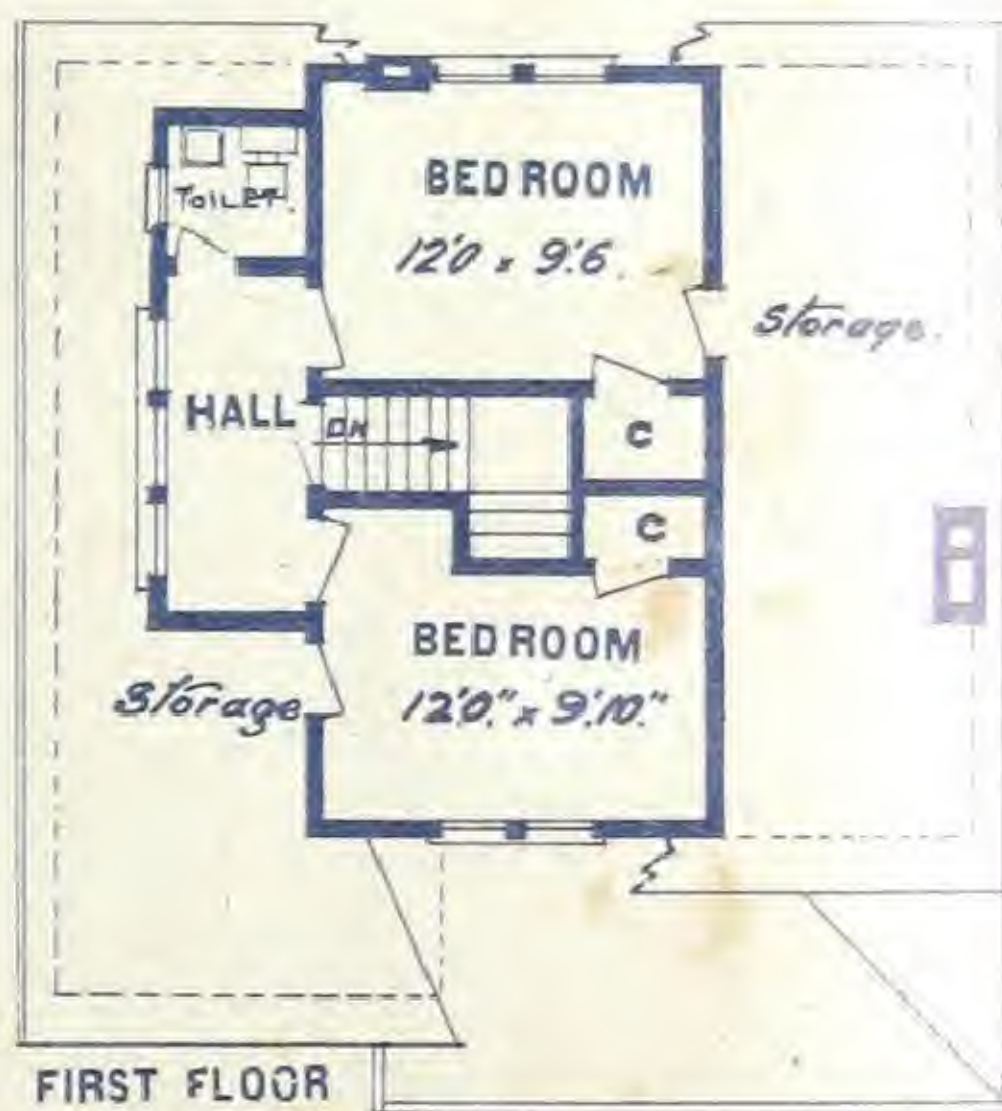

This comfortable, low-spreading home well merits its position as one of our popular designs. Features which appeal to our customers are the sheltered veranda, the size and arrangement of the rooms and in particular the abundant storage space under the eaves. Our Sunnydale home is shown in brick construction but is well sued to either stucco or frame construction as desired. An ideal town home for a medium-sized lot.

WASHROOM

Size 28' 0" x 29' 0"

Here's another attractive design in the English style. The sweeping lines of the porch roof, the unusual hooded front entrance and the large brick chimney placed at the front of the house, all give a touch of distinction to the exterior. The interior is an excellent layout of inviting rooms. The living room and dinette take up the whole front of the house and, as only a wide arch separates these two rooms, a very spacious effect is achieved. The kitchen is a nice size with windows on two sides and is conveniently placed to make access to all rooms easy. A small hallway gives privacy to the downstairs bedroom and washroom and makes it possible to reach the upstairs bedrooms and bathroom without passing through the front of the house. The same careful forethought is shown in the provision and placement of the clothes closets and the vestibule coat closet. Stucco is the favored construction for this house but a combination of brick and stucco would look very well.

The exterior of this fine English-style home recommends itself, but we might point out some of the features of the interior layout. Note, for instance, the lovely glassed-in sun porch leading off the dining room; the breakfast nook in the kitchen; the convenient wash-room by the front entrance and the more than adequate closet space in the bedrooms. We suggest that this home looks best in brick construction as shown, but would also look well with stucco walls and timbered gables.
